

District 4 Spotlight

On Wednesday, May 6th President David Tandy was on hand for the unveiling of a new street sign at WHAS TV. Chuck Olmstead Way was officially dedicated for a section of Armory Street located at Chestnut Street at the entrance to the station.. Olmstead, who worked at the station for 34 years, passed away from a brain aneurism in March of this year. Tandy was joined by members of the Olmstead family and WHAS TV

